My minions of darkness didn't get that way because of their cleanliness you know. They've mastered and reveled in the art of desecration. Which is why I hand out the Kama Pootra to every new soul entering the 9 levels of Hell. Sure, my HR department has given me a poo-poo shstorm saying this banal material shouldn't even be allowed in Hell. Why, they ask, should I even be giving out advice on poo nirvana when this is a place for eternal punishment? But I says to them, "Listen here HR - people are fatter than ever these days! Don't try and tell me exercise and poops aren't the scariest things to 300 lb. Debbie in Accounting." I mean just imagine the plethora of penalties I can assign. Found guilty of a murderous coup? Try downward dog in a grimy loo. Are you always having angry fits? Do chaturanga with the shts. You're a mama that is so fat? Get in cow pose with some scat! Now I hear you saying, "Devil, you freaky nasty!" And it's true I dabble in many foul arts. However, if I am supposed to be the vilest being in existence, I need to stay creative. I can't have humans beating my devilish ways. Have you seen the filthy genius on the Internet these days? Do you remember those two girls and that one cup?

This is my way of throwing some feces back at your species. Plus it's only $8

A friend of mine has been spending a lot of time in the bathroom because she has been going through chemo and experiencing some side effects. After flowers and the gamut of traditional gifts I had been looking for something to keep her entertained and in good spirit. This book did the trick. Reading excerpts definitely starts a unique conversation, and one that everyone can relate to.

My life has changed since reading this book. I have also remodeled my bathroom so I may perform some of these acts of pooping. Well worth the time and money that has been invested. My bowels have never been emptier, and a poop has never felt so good. Although I have done some of them before reading the book, the new ways to poop, will blow your mind, and your bowels clean. I had a stretch of time that was very unhealthy eating and was bound up, but using these 52 ways to poop, I had no need of the laxatives that I purchased. Thank you Kama Pootra, from me and my bowels.

I bought this book for a white elephant gift exchange. It's moderately funny the first time you flip through it, but then quickly after you'll realize it's the tackiest book you've ever bought. I wouldn't ever recommend purchasing this for anything other than an anonymous gift exchange.

My poo life was suffering. Nothing was new. Nothing was different. We were in a rut. Same position every time. Finally, this book came into my life. I have a whole new outlook on life! I can poo forwards, backwards, even upside down! Thanks, Kama Pootra, for getting my poo life back on track.

I recently bought this book as a gag gift for a yankee swap. When I got home, I read through it, and found it so hilarious that I had to steal the gift from my cousin, who picked it earlier in the swap. I can't help but crack up when I read about "the torpedo"!

This little book is hilarious!! Almost want to keep it instead of gifting it for Christmas. Glanced through a few pages and we laughed so hard we were in tears and added bonus - it is all presented very skillfully with a touch of elegance.

One of my favorite things about this book is that it's unclear if this is the perfect coffee table book or an ideal candidate for a bathroom companion. Is one more enlightened if one reads this while also performing one of it's exercises?
