I ordered this for my mother-in-law. She loves this book as the print is very large and she doesn't have to pull out glasses or a magnifying glass to see the puzzles. The puzzles are easy enough yet she has to think. I bought her Volume I last Christmas and she is addicted. She has gone through Volumes I-IV and is currently working on Volume V. I am waiting for Volume VI to become available through .com. If anyone has elderly parents, this is a great gift. It definitely keeps the mind working!

So happy to find these. Easy to read and challenging enough to make it more interesting. I use these to block out constant pain. I'm very competitive, so the concentration required so absorbs my thoughts I don't think about the pain. I like to do them before I go to bed, after completing a few, I am more relaxed and it is easier to fall asleep.

The puzzles are relatively easy - most of the ones we have done can be done in a few minutes. And the large print of the clues, and the large boxes for the solution answers make it comfortable to work with.

I'm not a genius, nor am I usually very good at crossword puzzles. I usually stay away from them at all costs opting for word searches instead. With this book, instead of having only 1 or 2 answers filled in, I have only 4 or 5 answers NOT filled in. This makes me so happy and kind of renews my faith in the crossword puzzle world. I've been able to complete puzzles in 25-30 minutes, I am not sure if that's good time, but for me, it is. If crossword puzzles are usually hard for you, this book may be what you need if you really want to be able to do crosswords.

I bought this puzzle book for my mother. The large print makes it very easy for her to see and she loves the puzzles. I would highly recommend to anyone who loves to do puzzles.

Too easy; I preferred my previous crosswords book: The New York Times Large-Print STAY SHARP crosswords with 120 easy to hard puzzles, which I will reorder.
